Directions:

- Think about your work with your team on the Mars rover and the criteria for the project.
- Give yourself a score of "1" if you feel that you could have done a better job in a particular area.
- Give yourself a "2" if you did an especially good job in that area; and a score of "3" if you went above and beyond the criteria and did an especially outstanding job.
- Be honest with yourself - we'll also evaluate your work and your team's rover.
